ANOTHER SCHOOL ENTERS POLITICS

Lahainaluna Graduates
Expected To Vote
For Achi

Home Rule-Laborites held a meeting yesterday afternoon at Wai-anae returning to town late in the evening. The meeting was large and orderly.

Achi was the main attraction. He told the people that he was the framer of the Municipal Act and it was only introduced in the Senate by John C. Lane, who claimed the honor of being the father of the law. He tried to convince the voters that Lane was telling an untruth in respect to this.

It is said by the Laborites that all graduates and former students of La-hainaluna will vote for Achi regardless of their party affiliations. This would give Achi a high vote at Wai-anae.

Chris. Holt, candidate for Deputy Sheriff, has assurance of the support of the Waianae people. This is also true of John Wise. George C. Beckley, candidate for Treasurer, was receiving enthusiastically. He made a humorous speech.

At Waianae the Home Rule-Laborite meeting on Saturday night was well attended.

KINDNESS TO SISTERS IS DEEPLY APPRECIATED

The Sisters of Saint Francis, who have charge of the Kapiolani Home for Children at Kalihi, wish to thank the people and the school children in particular for their generosity to them on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their arrival in the Islands.

The list of the societies and schools which generously donated to the purpose for the Sisters follows:

Leahi Chapter No. 2, Order of Estern Star, $50; Kaahumanu Society, $25; Hui Olowalu, $25; Central Grammar School, $20.00; Central Primary School, $25.35; Convent School, $17.70; Kaahumanu School, $20.10; Kapiolani School, $10; Kalia-Hiwaena School, $8.50; Pauoa School, $5.25.

KUHIO EXPLAINS

the voters in his campaign. He ended with the remark, "I have always been a staunch Republican and I expect to remain one. The Republican party has a record for doing things."

Cathcart was given a rousing welcome when he appeared upon the platform. He made a brief reference to the abuse which has been heaped upon him.

Cathcart referred to his record in office and made the statement that it has ever been his endeavor to perform his duty in a manner calculated to be to the greatest benefit to the entire community. He then asked for the support of the voters in the coming campaign. He was received with cheers and left the platform amid a round of applause.

Addresses were delivered by other candidates for office, all of them calling upon the voters to stand by the Republican party at this time when it is so essential that harmony reign in the legislative halls.

The meeting was one of the largest held so far. Fully 3000 people were present and the remarks of the speakers were listened to with great interest.

The wireless station at Kahuku last night picked up the cruiser squadron.
The message stated that the squadron was then in Lat. 23 deg. 36 min. north and Long. 144 deg. 27 min. west. Messages were also copied from Valdez and Sitka, Alaska.

Charles Lindh will leave tomorrow for Molokai to take charge of the new wireless station. Lindh has been acting as assistant at Kahuku. Manager Balch will go to Molokai either tomorrow or the latter part of the week.

There was a lively game of football on the High School grounds Saturday.
The lads of the regular team went up against the alumni. Although the alumni players greatly outweighed the school boys, the latter did plenty work and incidentally got in some great practice.

The Waianae baseball team defeated the Twilights by a score of 4-3 in a closely-fought game at Waianae yesterday. Both teams put up good ball and the victors had no walk-over.

Do you feel tired and sleepy after a day's work? Are you heavy and "soggy" after lunch?

If you are it's a sign that your system needs a little "toning up," that's all.
Your digestion is poor.

A glass of Primo Beer, taken with your meals, will aid the digestion and act as a general tonic.

It makes an Ideal Beverage for Home Use.
